I'm caught between a rock and a hard place until the filing deadline on Thursday. I'm booked pretty solid with preparations for both the Energy Policy Council and the evening Atlantic Coast Pipeline public meetings. Any chance she can work with Jeremy Tarr or Jordan Whichard in the Governor's Office? I'll be calling Jeremy shortly and suggest he reach out to her.

Merrie Jo wanted to talk about what her role and time line would be on getting letters from local governments (as the "sent to the governor" requirement). Do you want to set up a call with her soon?
